

Elections ICA 2022 Presidency

Jean-Louis Bancel presents the main points of his programme

To increase the ICA legitimacy towards its members

ICA must deliver towards its members

- ICA secretariat will become a hub at the service of Regions, sectors, and gatherings of primary coops
- The role of women and youth must be improved in the ICA governance
- The Kuala Lumpur GA's resolution on fees and votes calculation must be turned into propositions
- Thanks to international partnerships, implement Development actions to increase membership and thus legitimacy
- The cooperative identity must be fostered to ensure the visibility of the cooperative model.

To reinforce the visibility of the ICA and the cooperative movement

- ICA must reinforce the visibility and recognition of the cooperative model
- ICA must be influential towards the World bank and other development institutions, World Trade Organisation, OECD...
- To resist the influence of other types of enterprises, ICA must contribute to label coops respectful of our identity
- ICA must develop its role in education, promote tools using the possibilities offered by the data revolution
- To reduce the gap between saying and doing, to maintain cooperatives at the forefront of innovation and sustainability.

Jean-Louis Bancel

- More than 30 years of involvement in the cooperative movement
- A seasoned manager of primary cooperatives in insurance and banking
- A leader who knows the sectors and regions needs
- At the forefront in innovation for coops (Global Innovation Coop Summit, Coops and Common goods, Coops in new technologies and environmental transition,..)
- Influential among European and international institutions
- In position to quickly:
 - Make the new board work as a united team
 - Give back confidence to the staff
 - To conclude a new partnership with the European Commission

THERE IS STRENGTH IN UNITY

International
Co-operative
Alliance
